

GEOGRAPHY (GEO)

---

GEO-1100: Geography of North America (3 hours)

Spatial patterns and relationships in the United States and Canada. Focus on physical environment, population, cultural and economic relationships. Field Trip: Required.

GEO-1200: World Geography: Culture Patterns (3 hours)

A geographical study of global demographic, cultural, political, historical and economic patterns. Field Trip: Required. IAI:S4906.

GEO-1300: The Developing World (3 hours)

Current realities and problems associated with the Developing World. The economic, spatial and political context of the Third World. Replaces: ECO-1300. Field Trip: Required.

GEO-4910: Special Topics: Geography (3 hours)

An in-depth study of a topic relevant to a current topic in the discipline or a topic of interest that is not addressed in other departmental courses. The course may be repeated for credit so long as the topic is different.